We are changing up the Jr leader process this year, and will be selecting our Jr. Leaders after, all applications are submitted. All applications are due by October 1st, 2023

Have you been a Jr. Leader before? _____ If yes, how many years??

As a Jr. Leader you are asked to attend 5 of the 7-club meeting, if you know of any meeting you cannot attend, please let me know ahead of time.

As a Jr. Leader you are asked to do more than the average club member, What items do you think that you will be able to help with?
(IDEAS: Cleaning show booth, planting and hanging flower)

What events are you most excited about doing next year?

Why do you want to be a Jr. Leader?

Why should you be chosen to be a Jr. Leader for the Saddle Club?

What are two goals that you have for the upcoming year?

Rules:

- Cell phones will be turned in during all meetings.
- Following all saddle club rules when at all club events.
- Attending all club and Jr. Leader meeting
- Setting a good example for all other club members at all 4-H events
- Treating all leaders, adults, and other club members with respect.
- No fighting or inappropriate language - you will receive one warning and if caught again you will be removed from the Jr leaders
- Showing up for all work shifts at shows and fair
- Jr. Leaders are expected to help with small shifts after shows and during fair, these items would be cleaning and setting up, making sure barn is cleaned out, etc.

We are asking that all parents and Jr. Leaders join the Jr. Leader text group
As well as the saddle club text group – which you will be two different groups.
We would like you to be a part of both groups as you will receive pertinent information in both!

Reminder just because you are turning in an application, it does not mean does not mean that you will be selected to be a Jr leader.

4Hers: I understand that if the rules above are not followed I will be removed from the
Jr. Leader program and will be asked to leave that meeting if I am disrespectful or disruptive.
